

Cape Town:

Most popular city

Called the mother city

Great hiking, mountain shit

Adventure sports

Restaurants - The Ritz

Good night life

Caters to everybody

Literally the end point of SA

Artsy Fartsy, design capital its giant canvas

Beach, mountains, dry land, winery

The California of SA

Jeffrey's bay

Stadium hosted 2010 World Cup

Lions head, table mountain, camp's bay/landadno(beaches), V&A waterfront, Stellenbosch wine routes, Robben Island(Mandela), Cape Point(see penguins), Kirstenbosch Botanical Garden

Social:

Name	Description	Hours	Link	Location
The Assembly	Cavernous industrial-styled club hosting local and international DJs and musicians.		http://theassembly.co.za/	61 Harrington Street, District Six, Cape Town, 8001, South Africa
Fiction Music Bar	Electronic and contemporary music, along with upcoming artists in a wooden bar.
Tiger Tiger	Upscale Dance Club with the latest top songs.
Cubana	Cocktail bar w/ specials on food and beverages.
Stones	The "Classic" Pub consisting of pool tables, stripper poles, and a dance floor.

Adventure:

Name	Description	Hours	Link	Location
Cable Car to top of Table Mountain	Circular rotating cable car as it ascends to the summit of Table Mountain. 4-6 minutes to top. Best view of the Mother City.
Shark Cage Diving in False Bay	An upclose and personal encounter with Great Whites Sharks.
Tandem Paragliding Lion's Head	Soar across the Atlantic Coast Line and land on the lawns La Med.
Ratanga Junction	An Amusement Park with one of the world's highest rated adrenaline ride in the world, called The Slingshot.
Hike Up Lion's Head	Spiral up the mountain with a mixture of hiking and rock climbing, while spectating Cape Town from every angle and once reaching the top you can embrace the aerial view of The Mother City.

Landmarks:

Name	Description	Hours	Link	Location
Robben Island	Visitors can take a ferry where their tours are directed by former political prisoners who draw a vivid picture of the history and life of Nelson Mandela and his fellow prisoners.	7:30am - 5:45pm Monday to Sunday	www.robben-island.org.za/map	Robben Island, Capetown, 7400, South Africa
V&A Waterfront	Established in 1988. The Victoria & Alfred waterfront was built to draw tourism and create a harbour for ships importing and exporting goods.	9:00am - 9:00pm Monday to Friday	www.waterfront.co.za	19 Dock Rd, V&A Waterfront, Cape Town, South Africa
The Castle of Good Hope	The oldest surviving structure in South Africa. Built between 1666/1676 by The Dutch East Indian Company	9:30am - 4:00pm Monday to Sunday	www.castelofgoodhope.co.za	Darling Stand Buitenkant St, Cape Town, South Africa
Iziko Museum	Founded in 1825 this Museum holds natural history & science with fossils, animals, human tools and clothing.	10:00am - 5:00pm Monday to Sunday	www.iziko.org.za/museums/planetarium	25 Queen Victoria St, Capetown, 8000, South Africa
Bo-Kaap Museum	established in 1978, furnished as a living space that depicts the living area of the 19th century Muslim family	10:00am - 5:00pm Monday to Saturday	www.iziko.org.za/museums/bo-kap-museum	71 Whale St, Bo-Kaap, Cape Town, South Africa

Johannesberg:

